

Learn a new hobby

Meet new people and learn new skills

Come with friends or on your own, hobby courses are all about having fun.

Whether you want to learn a new skill, pick up an old hobby, have fun with friends, or meet new people, a hobby course will help to keep you active, increase your confidence and could even improve your job prospects.

Courses can last for as little as a day through to a few weeks and typically there won't be any exams, but you will receive a certificate of achievement at the end.

So what are you waiting for, why not make the most of your spare time and check out the courses we offer? Who knows where it might take you.
