

Money matters

Wondering about how to pay for your course?

There are lots of options available and you might even be entitled to financial support.

We know that finance will often be a big consideration and will no doubt be a factor in your decision to return to education. Depending on your age and circumstances, you may be entitled to receive significant financial help and/or benefits. In some cases, you might even be able to attend at no cost at all.

Fees

Course fees vary depending on the course you're studying and its duration. Our fees usually include the tuition fee and exam fees (where applicable). Find out more about individual course fees by searching for the course you're interested in, use Live Chat, email, or call us on 01202 205205.
