

The Course

In brief...

This is a vibrant, multi-disciplinary Access to HE course aimed at adult learners who can demonstrate a strong interest and/or experience in media related subjects.

The main aims of the course are:

- To develop confidence in practical and creative skills in the chosen areas
- To explore the theoretical and practical relationships between the various disciplines
- To promote the use of working vocabularies and academic confidence
- To promote academic and pastoral support and preparing for entry into Higher Education, UCAS applications and progression routes

Who is it for?

The course is intended for adults who do not have traditional sixth-form or vocational qualifications, preparing for and gaining entry to degrees and other Higher Education programmes. This course is designed for applicants who demonstrate clear commitment, maturity and motivation.

What the Course Leads to

Many of our alumni have gone onto study amongst other Film Production, Photography, Animation, VFX, Illustration, Media Studies, Tv and Broadcasting, Film and TV, 3D Visualisation and Scriptwriting.

What do I need to apply

To do this course you should have...

The course is intended for adults who do not have traditional sixth form or vocational qualifications, but are looking to return to education. Our courses provide an excellent preparation for Higher Education and a step towards your dreams of university.

Students are admitted to the programme by application form and formal interview, with a further guidance interview where appropriate. Where necessary, evidence of your determination to succeed may be required. Applicants must be able to work at Level 2 or above for literacy and numeracy, producing certificates/evidence of this at interview.

For those with English as a second language either IELTS 5.5 or successful completion of The College language assessment is required.

We will offer you the opportunity to check your level in these subjects prior to/at interview and support you in identifying how you can improve these skills if necessary.
