

Performing Arts Level 2

2021/22

Inspiring Lives, Discovering Futures

The Course

In brief...

This course could be your first step to television, film or theatre work, be it either in performance or technical support. Employment within the industry not only depends on talent, but also a sense of determination to succeed. As competition for acting jobs can be extremely fierce you might consider working voluntarily for a local theatre, for example, in order to gain some valuable experience and make important contacts.

What the Course Leads to

What courses can I do after this?

Students will examine the many different aspects of performance and will be encouraged to think about their progression into further training and employment. You may be able to progress to the PEARSON Level 3 Extended Diploma in Performing Arts or Dance or Production.
