Bournemouth & Poole College are proud to announce they won the AAC Apprenticeship Award for Catering & Hospitality Apprenticeship Provider of the Year for the second year running.

This prestigious award recognises the exceptional work of the Catering and Hospitality training team at The College, along with the surrounding support available to all apprentices at The College.

Christophe Baffos, Director of Learning for Catering & Hospitality, said: “Winning this award is recognition of the value we add to both businesses and learners through our fantastic apprenticeships provision. Being recognised with this award for the second year in a row cements our reputation as being an industry leader for catering and hospitality training in the UK.”
