

The Course

In brief...

During the course, you will be introduced to traditional clay hand building techniques such as thumb, slab and coil pot making. You will experiment with surface mark making, decoration techniques as well as glazing. Take part in a creative activity that can have a positive impact on your mindset, health and wellbeing. Step by step guidance will be given with a range of taught seasonally themed projects or create your own masterpieces. By the end of the course you should have a few pieces ready to take home.
